

Front End Machine, MySQL DB,
Load Balancer & Reverse Proxy

1. Request a specific file/info
2. Assess & use MYSQLDB to find suitable DC X (mapped to RP X)
3. Redirect the message with info about a suitable RP X
4. Re-request the file/info from RP X
5. Forward the request to DC X
6. Provide the requested file/info
7. Send the reqd file/info to RP X
8. Wrap with suitable headers
9. Send the file/info to Aladin

Port XX Port address where the Apache (http server) listens